COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

From approximately the years of 1956 through 1961, Br. Maseo Butteri, O.F.M. ("Br. Butteri") sexually abused Plaintiff as a child. While the abuse occurred, Defendants were generally negligent, they negligently employed Br. Butteri, and gave him access to children, including Plaintiff. This lawsuit arises out of Plaintiff's significant damages from that sexual abuse, described below. Plaintiff, by and through Plaintiff's attorneys, states and alleges as follows:

PARTIES*A. Plaintiff

1. At all times material to this Complaint, Plaintiff was a parishioner, student, and altar boy at Our of Lady of Peace Catholic Church in Brooklyn, New York. At all times material, Plaintiff resided in the State of New York.

2. Plaintiff brings this action under a pseudonym with leave of Court.

B. Defendants

3. Whenever reference is made to any Defendant entity, such reference includes that entity, its parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, and successors. In addition, whenever reference is made to any act, deed, or transaction of any entity, the allegation means that the entity engaged in the act, deed, or transaction by or through its officers, directors, agents, employees, or representatives while they were actively engaged in the management, direction, control, or transaction of the entity's business or affairs.

4. At all times material, Defendant Diocese of Brooklyn a/k/a The Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, New York ("Diocese") was and continues to be an organization or entity which includes, but is not limited to, civil corporations, decision making entities, officials, and employees, authorized to conduct business and conducting business in the State of New York with its principal place of business at 310 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, NY 11215.

5. The Diocese was created in approximately 1853. Later, the Diocese created a corporation called the Diocese of Brooklyn to conduct some of its affairs. The Diocese operates its affairs as both a corporate entity and as the organization known as the Diocese of Brooklyn. Both of these entities and all other affiliated corporations and entities controlled by the Bishop are included in this Complaint as the “Diocese.” The Diocese functions as a business by engaging in numerous revenue producing activities and soliciting money from its members in exchange for its services.

6. The Diocese has several programs that seek out the participation of children including, but not limited to, schools and other educational programs. The Diocese, through its officials, has complete control over those activities and programs involving children. The Diocese has the power to appoint, train, supervise, monitor, remove, and terminate each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

7. At all times material, Defendant Order of Friars Minor a/k/a Franciscan Friars a/k/a Franciscan Fathers a/k/a Franciscan Friars – Holy Name Province a/k/a Province of the Immaculate Conception (Friars Minor of the Order of St. Francis) a/k/a Franciscan Province of the Immaculate Conception a/k/a Custody of St. Casimir (“Franciscan Friars”) was and continues to be a religious order of priests and/or brothers affiliated with the Roman Catholic Church with its provincial headquarters and principal place of business located at 129 West 31st Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10001 and/or 125 Thompson Street, New York, New York 10012.

8. The Franciscan Friars are an organization or entity that includes, but is not limited to, civil corporations, decision making entities, officials, and employees, authorized to conduct business and conducting business in the State of New York. The provincial is the top official of the Franciscan Friars and is given authority over all matters dealing with the Franciscan Friars as a result of his position. The Franciscan Friars function as a business by engaging in numerous revenue producing activities and soliciting money in exchange for its services.

9. The Franciscan Friars have several programs that seek out the participation of children, including, but not limited to, schools and other educational programs. The Franciscan Friars, through its officials, have complete control over those activities involving children. The Franciscan Friars have the power to appoint, train, supervise, monitor, remove, and terminate each person working with children within the Franciscan Friars.

10. At all times material, Defendant Our of Lady of Peace ("Our Lady of Peace") was and continues to be an organization authorized to conduct business and conducting business in the State of New York, with its principal place of business at 522 Carroll Street, Brooklyn, New York 11215. Our of Lady of Peace includes, but is not limited to, the Our of Lady of Peace corporation and any other organizations and/or entities operating under the same or similar name with the same or similar principal place of business.

11. At all times material, Defendant Our Lady of Peace was and continues to be under the direct authority, control, and province of Defendant Diocese, the Bishop of Defendant Diocese, and Defendant Franciscan Friars. Defendant Our Lady of Peace includes any school affiliated with Our of Lady of Peace. At all times material, Defendant Our Lady of Peace School was under the direct authority, control, and province of Defendant Diocese, the Bishop of Defendant Diocese, and Defendant Franciscan Friars.

At all times material, Defendants Our Lady of Peace, Diocese, and Franciscan Friars owned, operated, managed, maintained, and controlled Our Lady of Peace School.

12 Defendants Does 1 through 5 are unknown agents whose identities will be provided when they become known pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 1024.

JURISDICTION

13 This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 301 as Defendants' principal places of business are in New York and because the unlawful conduct complained of herein occurred in New York.

14 Venue is proper pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 503 in that Kings County is the principal place of business of Defendant Diocese. In addition, many of the events giving rise to this action occurred in Kings County.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Background

15 The hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church and, by implication these Defendants, have been aware of the serious problem of clergy sexual abuse of children since at least the 1800s.

16 Further, Roman Catholic Church officials, including these Defendants, have used their power and influence to prevent victims and their families from disclosing allegations of abuse.

17 Additionally, Plaintiff's relationship to Defendants and Br. Butteri, as a vulnerable child, parishioner, student, and altar boy at Our Lady of Peace was one in which Plaintiff was subject to the ongoing influence of Defendants and Br. Butteri, Plaintiff's abuser.

B. Specific Allegations

18. At all times material, Br. Butteri was a Roman Catholic cleric employed by Defendants Diocese, Franciscan Friars, and Our Lady of Peace. At all times material, Br. Butteri was a member of the religious order the Franciscan Friars. Br. Butteri remained under the direct supervision, employ, and control of Defendants.

19. Defendants placed Br. Butteri in positions where he had access to and worked with children as an integral part of his work.

20. Plaintiff was raised in a devout Roman Catholic family and attended Our Lady of Peace in Brooklyn, in the Diocese. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family came in contact with Br. Butteri as an agent and representative of Defendants, and at Our of Lady of Peace.

21. Plaintiff, as a youth, participated in activities at Our Lady of Peace. Plaintiff, therefore, developed great admiration, trust, reverence, and respect for the Roman Catholic Church, including Defendants and their agents, including Br. Butteri. During and through these activities, Plaintiff, as a minor and vulnerable child, was dependent on Defendants and Br. Butteri. Defendants had custody of Plaintiff and accepted the entrustment of Plaintiff and, therefore, had responsibility for Plaintiff and authority over Plaintiff.

22. From approximately 1956 to 1961, when Plaintiff was approximately 10 to 15 years old, Br. Butteri engaged in unpermitted sexual contact with Plaintiff.

COUNT I: NEGLIGENCE

23. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1-22 above.

24. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care to protect the Plaintiff from injury.

25. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty of care because each Defendant had a special relationship with Plaintiff.

26. Defendants also had a duty arising from the special relationship that existed with Plaintiff, Plaintiff's parents, and other parents of young, innocent, vulnerable children in the Diocese of Brooklyn to properly train and supervise its clerics. This special relationship arose because of the high degree of vulnerability of the children entrusted to their care. As a result of this high degree of vulnerability and risk of sexual abuse inherent in such a special relationship, Defendants had a duty to establish measures of protection not necessary for persons who are older and better able to safeguard themselves.

27. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from harm because each Defendant also had a special relationship with Br. Butteri.

28. Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care because they solicited youth and parents for participation in their youth programs; encouraged youth and parents to have the youth participate in their programs; undertook custody of minor children, including Plaintiff; promoted their facilities and programs as being safe for children; held their agents, including Br. Butteri, out as safe to work with children; encouraged parents and children to spend time with their agents; and/or encouraged their agents, including Br. Butteri, to spend time with, interact with, and recruit children.

29. By accepting custody of the minor Plaintiff, Defendants established an in loco parentis relationship with Plaintiff and in so doing, owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from injury. Further, Defendants entered into a fiduciary relationship with Plaintiff by undertaking the custody, supervision of, and/or care of the minor Plaintiff. As a result of Plaintiff being a minor, and by Defendants undertaking the care and guidance of the Plaintiff, Defendants also held a position of empowerment over Plaintiff. Further, Defendants, by holding themselves out as being able to provide a safe environment for children, solicited and/or accepted this position of empowerment. Defendants, through its employees, exploited this power over Plaintiff and, thereby, put the minor Plaintiff at risk for sexual abuse.

30. By establishing and/or operating the Diocese and Our Lady of Peace, accepting the minor Plaintiff as a participant in their programs, holding their facilities and programs out to be a safe environment for Plaintiff, accepting custody of the minor Plaintiff in loco parentis, and by establishing a fiduciary relationship with Plaintiff, Defendants entered into an express and/or implied duty to properly supervise Plaintiff and provide a reasonably safe environment for children, who participated in their programs. Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty to properly supervise Plaintiff to prevent harm from foreseeable dangers. Defendants had the duty to exercise the same degree of care over minors under their control as a reasonably prudent person would have exercised under similar circumstances.

31. By establishing and operating the Diocese and Our Lady of Peace, which offered educational programs to children and which may have included a school, and by accepting the enrollment and participation of the minor Plaintiff as a participant in those educational programs, Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty to properly supervise Plaintiff to prevent harm from generally foreseeable dangers.

32. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from harm because Defendants invited Plaintiff onto their property and Br. Butteri posed a dangerous condition on Defendants' property.

33. Each Defendant breached its duties to Plaintiff. Defendants failed to use ordinary care in determining whether their facilities were safe and/or determining whether they had sufficient information to represent their facilities as safe. Defendants' breach of their duties include, but are not limited to: failure to protect Plaintiff from a known danger, failure to have sufficient policies and procedures in place to prevent child sex abuse, failure to properly implement policies and procedures to prevent child sex abuse, failure to take reasonable measures to ensure that policies and procedures to prevent child sex abuse were working, failure to adequately inform families and children of the risks of child sex abuse, failure to investigate risks of child molestation, failure to properly train the employees at institutions and programs within Defendants' geographical confines, failure to train the minors within Defendants' geographical confines about the dangers of sexual abuse by clergy, failure to have any outside agency test their safety procedures, failure to protect the children in their programs from child sex abuse, failure to adhere to the applicable standard of care for child safety, failure to investigate the amount and type of information necessary to represent the institutions, programs, leaders and people as safe, failure to train their employees properly to identify signs of child molestation by fellow employees, failure by relying upon mental health professionals, and/or failure by relying on people who claimed that they could treat child molesters.

34. Defendants also breached their duty to Plaintiff by failing to warn Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family of the risk that Br. Butteri posed and the risks of child sexual abuse in Catholic institutions. They also failed to warn them about any of the knowledge that Defendants had about child sexual abuse.

35. Defendants additionally violated a legal duty by failing to report known and/or suspected abuse of children by Br. Butteri and/or its other agents to the police and law enforcement.

36. Prior to the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, Defendants learned or should have learned that Br. Butteri was not fit to work with children. Defendants, by and through their agents, servants and/or employees, became aware, or should have become aware of Br. Butteri's propensity to commit sexual abuse and of the risk to Plaintiff's safety. At the very least, Defendants knew or should have known that they did not have sufficient information about whether or not their leaders and people working at Our Lady of Peace and other Catholic institutions within the Diocese of Brooklyn were safe.

37. Defendants knew or should have known that there was a risk of child sex abuse for children participating in Catholic programs and activities within the Diocese. At the very least, Defendants knew or should have known that they did not have sufficient information about whether or not there was a risk of child sex abuse for children participating in Catholic programs and activities within the Diocese.

38. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had numerous agents who had sexually molested children. Defendants knew or should have known that child molesters have a high rate of recidivism. They knew or should have known that there was a specific danger of child sex abuse for children participating in their youth programs.

39. However, despite this knowledge, Defendants negligently deemed that Br. Butteri was fit to work with children; and/or that any previous suitability problems Br. Butteri had were fixed and cured; and/or that Br. Butteri would not sexually molest children; and/or that Br. Butteri would not injure children.

40. Defendants' actions created a foreseeable risk of harm to Plaintiff. As a vulnerable child participating in the programs and activities Defendants offered to minors, Plaintiff was a foreseeable victim. Additionally, as a vulnerable child who Br. Butteri had access to through Defendants' facilities and programs, Plaintiff was a foreseeable victim.

41. As a direct result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering. The sexual abuse and resulting injuries to Plaintiff were caused solely and wholly by reason of the negligent failures of Defendants.

COUNT II: NEGLIGENT TRAINING AND SUPERVISION OF EMPLOYEES

42. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1-41 above.

43. At all times material, Br. Butteri was employed by Defendants and was under each Defendant's direct supervision, employ, and control when he committed the wrongful acts alleged herein. Br. Butteri engaged in the wrongful conduct while acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendants and/or accomplished the sexual abuse by virtue of his job-created authority.

44. Defendants had a duty, arising from their employment of Br. Butteri, to ensure that he did not sexually molest children.

45. Further, Defendants owed a duty to train and educate employees and administrators and establish adequate and effective policies and procedures calculated to detect, prevent, and address inappropriate behavior and conduct between clerics and children.

46. Defendants were negligent in the training, supervision, and instruction of their employees. Defendants failed to timely and properly educate, train, supervise, and/or monitor their agents or employees with regard to policies and procedures that should be followed when sexual abuse of a child is suspected or observed. Defendants were additionally negligent in failing to supervise, monitor, chaperone, and/or investigate Br. Butteri and/or in failing to create, institute, and/or enforce rules, policies, procedures, and/or regulations to prevent Br. Butteri's sexual abuse of Plaintiff. In failing to properly supervise Br. Butteri, and in failing to establish such training procedures for employees and administrators, Defendants failed to exercise the degree of care that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised under similar circumstances.

47. As a direct result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering. The sexual abuse and resulting injuries to Plaintiff were caused solely and wholly by reason of the negligent failures of Defendants in the training and/or supervising of its employees.

COUNT III: NEGLIGENT RETENTION OF EMPLOYEES

48. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1-47 above.

49. At all times material, Br. Butteri was employed by Defendants and was under each Defendant's direct supervision, employ, and control when he committed the wrongful acts alleged herein.

50. Defendants negligently retained Br. Butteri with knowledge of Br. Butteri's propensity for the type of behavior which resulted in Plaintiff's injuries in this action. Defendants failed to investigate Br. Butteri's past and/or current history of sexual abuse and, through the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have known of Br. Butteri's propensity for child sexual abuse. Defendants should have made an appropriate investigation of Br. Butteri and failed to do so. An appropriate investigation would have revealed the unsuitability of Br. Butteri for continued employment and it was unreasonable for Defendants to retain Br. Butteri in light of the information they knew or should have known.

51. Defendants negligently retained Br. Butteri in a position where he had access to children and could foreseeably cause harm which Plaintiff would not have been subjected to had Defendants taken reasonable care.

52. In failing to timely remove Br. Butteri from working with children or terminate the employment of Br. Butteri, Defendants failed to exercise the degree of care that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised under similar circumstances.

53. As a direct result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering. The sexual abuse and resulting injuries to Plaintiff were caused solely and wholly by reason of the negligent failures of Defendants in the retention of its employees.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing causes of action, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants in an amount that will fully and fairly compensate Plaintiff for Plaintiff's injuries and damages and for any other relief the Court deems appropriate. The amount of damages sought in this Complaint exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable. Pursuant to §4 of the New York Child Victims Act, Plaintiff is entitled to a trial preference.
